Best Bond blaster

orget Goldeneye. If you want to see Bond at his best, you've got to check out The World Is Not Enough. This is one of the classiest games you'll ever play. It's a blast from start to finish.

It's action packed excitement every step of the way and the huge number of guns and gadgets will blow your mind. You and your mates can even lock'n' load in some of the most amazing multiplayer arenas.

Unfortunately, some areas of the game are still highly classified, but let's check out what we know so far...

Bond's back in an ace action adventure that's pure 007 heaven. ▼ You use lots of cool gizmos and guns. It's time to play Bond.

Bond is back in his most action packed adventure ever. Secret agents, grab your guns. We've got a mission for you...

All action adventure

Bond movies don't come much bigger and better than The World Is Not Enough. The race is on for the billions of dollars in unclaimed oil which lies at the bottom of the Caspian Sea.

When Sir Robert King is killed just before he can finish getting the precious oil, his daughter, Elektra, vows to continue the job.

Trying to prevent her is Renard, a man who can feel no pain. If she's going to succeed, she'll need the help of the world's top secret agent.

A The game follows the film's plot as much as possible. The MI6 building is your first stop and it's action packed.

You get to travel the world, just like James Bond in the movie. Better pack your skis 'cos we're hitting the slopes.

▲ Wow, it's 007's cool car. Unfortunately, you can't jump behind the wheel. Shame!

Ultimate challenge

As with all sharp shooters, there are several difficulty settings which change the game.

Opt for Agent and you'll have fewer objectives plus you'll get longer to take down the enemies. Go for Secret Agent or 00 Agent and you'd better be an ace marksman. Otherwise you'll be ▲ Things get very hectic, even on the easiest setting

🛕 It's a race against the clock, so don't take too long. ⋖ Go for 00 Agent and you'll get more

Inside MI6

Your first mission takes place in the MI6 building which has come under attack from terrorists intent on major destruction.

This has caused the security system to fail and it's your job to restore order. Unfortunately, M has been kidnapped, but you'll need to shut down the blast windows and set off the sprinkler systems before you can find her.

You'll also meet the bizarrely named Cigar Girl, but will you catch her before she leaves?

A You start your mission inside M's office. It won't be long before she gets kidnapped by the bad guys.

The people in question

The game features all the characters from the movie and each one has a very important role. Let's meet the main players and learn a little about them...

As the head of MI6, she's 007's boss and gives him his new assignments. Unfortunately, she runs into trouble early on in the game and you've got to come to her rescue before she is killed.

Moneypenny

Moneypenny is M's secretary. She has a thing for Bond, but he always seems to have his eye on another hot babe. She passes on vital info on all your missions, so pay attention to her advice.

Robinson

Robinson offers vital support and back up to Bond and is one of M's assistants. He's a top secret service agent who's not afraid to step into the line of fire if ever called upon.

Davidov

Davidov is the head bodyguard for King Industries. His main objective is to make sure nothing happens to Elektra, but things change when Bond is given the same assignment.

Interactive environments

As you launch into your first assault, you're joined by armed back up. These ace marksmen will return fire and try to keep you alive.

Occasionally things will get tough, so look for objects that can be used to bail you out. Televisions and fire extinguishers blow up instantly and one good shot can destroy an entire enemy attack in a flash.

Take your time and you should be able to clear an area pretty quickly. Just make sure you don't spend too much time enjoying your victory.

MI6 security are on hand to assist you. Keep them alive as long as possible and they'll return fire when required.

Look out for fire extinguishers. One bullet and they explode sky high. There's one the back wall. Take aim and fire!

teach him to come looking for trouble. Right, who else wants to die? The TVs can also be blown up. Okay, there are no enemies, but it looks cool and the explosion is awesome.

A You've completed your first mission. Now you'd better go and rescue M.

✓ You've got to secure the area, but terrorists are inside.

Terrorists are breaking in through the windows. Get the shutters down quick.

Make sure you collect extra ammo from the dead guys. You'll certainly need it.

They're coming in from all angles. The elevator shaft is crawling with bad guys.

Cigar Girl is making her escape. Don't let her out of your sight.

■ With the lift shaft crawling with baddies, you've got to use the staircase. Unfortunately, it's no better, so keep your gun ready for action and open fire when the enemies appear. Another fine shot from the world's top secret agent.

Dr Christmas

She's a key member of the International Decommissioning Agency, chosen to oversee the shutting down of a nuclear test site. Unfortunately for her, Renard has other ideas.

Elektra

Name

Elektra's the daughter of Sir Robert King who dies in the movie's opening scenes. She must now take over her father's oil empire. Ruthless, intelligent and very beautiful.

Valentin

Originally Bond's enemy in Goldeneye, he aids 007 in his latest quest. However, we are still not sure whether he's a completely reformed character. Only time will tell...

Bull

He's one of Renard's most violent henchmen. Unfortunately, the main man is being kept under wraps, but Bull's main objective is to chauffeur and protect Valentin.

Big Game The World Is Not Enough

Follow the film

The game tries to follow the same plot as the movie, but don't think you'll have an advantage if you checked it out at the cinema.

Occasionally it strays slightly, but don't expect the action to let up for a second. Take too long and you'll fail your assignment. You'll still be able to play to the end of the stage, but you won't be able to continue further. If this happens, it's probably best to abort your mission and start again.

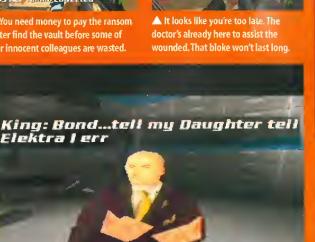

You need money to pay the ransom. Better find the vault before some of your innocent colleagues are wasted.

Elektra I err

It looks like you're too late. The doctor's already here to assist the

Sir Robert King is about to die. Just make sure you pass on his final message.

✓ You're almost at the security room. Blow away the final terrorist and you'll be able to secure the area and continue your quest. Check out the map on the back wall. Use this to find your way around the MI6 building. Now there's no excuse to get lost.

The best way to save health. Strafe in and out and get in your shots without taking a bullet.

Button

You can now reach those higher ledges by jumping. You couldn't do that in Goldeneye 007.

These allow you to look around the immediate area. You can't move when this is activated.

® Button

If you're under heavy fire, you'll need to keep on your toes. As a last resort, you can always duck.

Game controls

Goldeneye fans will be pleased to know that the game controls are very similar, so you'll feel right at home the moment you step into the fray.

However, you also have a few extra tricks up your sleeve. Let's see how you get around the levels...

B Button

A quick tap and you'll reload the barrel of your gun. This button also opens and closes doors.

A Button

Use this to scroll through your weapons. Select the gun you want and get on the trigger.

1 Trigger

Squeeze the trigger and let the lead fly. Watch your ammo when using automatic weapons.

The streets of London

Cigar Girl escapes from MI6, but Bond is still hot on her tail.

The adventure has progressed to the banks of the River Thames in good old London town, but don't try to take in the picturesque scenery. If she gets too far ahead, you'll be sent back to the start of the stage.

You receive information of a bomb threat which has closed down the nearest Underground station. You must make your way to the platform, board the train and defuse the explosive. Much tougher than it sounds...

Cigar Girl is long gone. Get rid of these goons and continue the search.

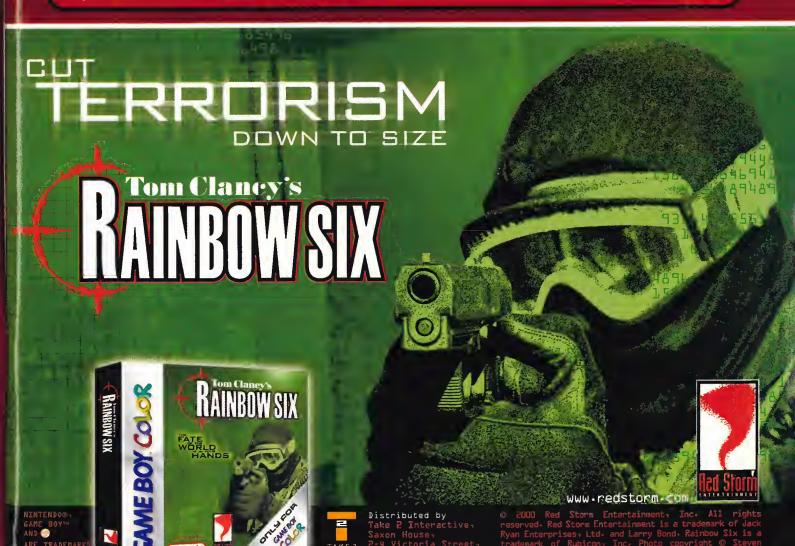

▲ The gunmen are swarming all over the place. Take aim and put a bullet in his brain.

This looks familiar. You've reached the Underground and it's closed as usual.

Make your way to the platform and board the train. Mind the gap!

Don't get shot

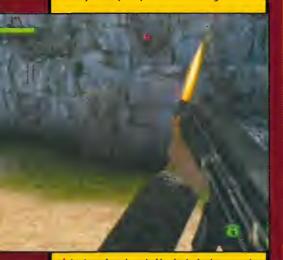

If you're going to survive, you've got to keep away from enemy fire.

The main reason for this is that there are no health top ups on your travels. Take too many hits and you'll fail your mission.

Luckily, body armour is strategically hidden in each level, but it won't last forever if you're slow to react to dangerous situations.

Avoid enemy fire wherever possible. You won't find any health pick ups in this rock hard game.

Look out for snipers lurking in the bushes or on the clifftops. It's usually this lot that'll drain your health.

This is the control tower. You must get inside if you're to escape the forest. There must be an unlocked door somewhere.

The bridge is swarming with bad guys. You'd better take them down before they open fire. They won't take any prisoners.

Airstrip ambush

You find yourself in the heart of the forest and it's crawling with armed guards.

infiltrate the air base, land the plane and get the hell out of there before the guards realise what's going on.

Unlike most shoot 'em ups, several paths are available to you and you must decide which is the best way to go.

The main road is shorter but more open, so head off the track to dodge enemy snipers.

Your first mission is to destroy the gun turrets.

Head to head combat isn't recommended. You're supposed to be the world's most deadly secret agent!

The guards' uniforms help them to blend into the forest backdrop. Luckly, this one was easy to spot.

Keep quiet

The World Is Not Enough is so realistic, you'll have to play out the role of a secret agent to the full or you won't get very far. And one of the first rules is to make as little noise as possible.

When heading towards the base, pay attention to your surroundings. Run on the path and you'll kick up stones alerting the guards. Likewise, rustle the bushes and they'll come and investigate the disturbance.

▲ Try to keep off the road. The noise underfoot will alert guards. Hit the one on the cliff and watch him fall.

▲ The grassy area is further, but you'll be able to sneak up on your victims. There might also be several routes to take.

▲ Don't forget to use your night vision goggles. You'll get more time to aim and you won't have to get too close.

Gadgets and gizmos

No Bond game would be complete without lots of cool gadgets. The World Is Not Enough certainly won't disappoint, although the majority are still being kept a closely guarded secret.

We've already learned about the night vision goggles which are great for picking off enemies in the dark, but one of the ultimate gizmos has got to be the Watch Taser.

This stunning device lets you shoot a devastating ray to freeze enemies to the spot. Then all you have to do is go and finish 'em off!

- ▲ How's this for a cool gadget? The Taser fires out a powerful stun ray.
- Strap on the night vision goggles and you'll be better equipped when battling in the dark.
- So, you think this is just an ordinary watch? Think again. This is a deadly weapon that no secret agent should be without.

Inside the base

This level takes place in real time, so things differ depending on how long you take. Blitz the base in record time and you can kill Davidov en route and steal his mobile.

Even better, make your way to the jeep and shoot him before the vehicle sets off to the airfield. Now you can grab his mobile phone and make the call to the control tower. But if you're too occupied in the early stages, you'll have to complete the entire journey on foot.

You can now make your way to the airfield without being detected.

Use your strafing skills to get past the final guards. Keep dodging.

Don't kill him. He's the only one who can land the plane.

Wicked weapons

The World Is Not Enough will boast more than 20 weapons and every one promises to be highly useful and fun to use.

Certain guns have a secondary function which can offer anything from laser sights to rapid fire and zoom. Unfortunately, we can't reveal all of them to you right now because they're still in the approval process, but here's a quick taster of what you can expect in your arsenal.

P99

This is your standard pistol, but it's still effective. It carries 16 rounds so you shouldn't go short. An accurate blaster.

Assault 12

A wicked pump action rifle. This bad boy fires one shot, or you can switch to automatic for an eight round burst.

SA Sniper

A great rifle even before you use the sniper sight. This is so accurate, there's no excuse to ever miss your target.

Mustang 44

A one shot kill pistol that also has a small zoom, It's slow to reload, but it looks impressive as you empty the barrel.

Mac 10

This silenced sub machine gun can switch from semi to fully automatic in a flash. Awesome pump action.

Punch

It's a last resort, but do you want to stand there and die? At least you can take out someone in your swan song.

▼ No need to punch your enemies if you've got a gun to hand. Shoot him!

Rescue mission

A secret agent's job isn't just about blasting terrorists.

Bond must also rescue hostages who have been captured by the tail of Valentin's bodyguard in the streets of Istanbul.

but the guards are coming straight for you from all angles.

Keep very tight to the walls and hostages are wiped out.

Cigar Girl's long gone. This time, try to keep up with Bull. Don't fail again!

Better not blast innocent civilians At least they duck out of the way.

📤 You're too late and the hostage has been shot. You've got to do it all over again

Hands up

Although you can't beat pounding your enemies with lead, do it too often and you won't get very far.

If you're going to survive, you'll need to use all your stealth skills. Creep through a stage and you may be able to sneak up on a terrorist. If you're very lucky they'll surrender, giving you enough time to knock them out with a devastating right hook.

Get in an enemy's face and he'll probably surrender. Now knock him out.

MINTENDO,64

On the slopes

There's a great variety of locations and it's not too long before you're leaving London and heading off to the Caucasian Mountains.

Terrorists parachute down while others lay in wait and try to pick you off as you approach. Accurate shooting is a must if you're to complete this mission because you're always on the move once you hit the slope. Fail to hit an enemy and they'll jump onto their skis and come after you.

▶ Use your sight before hitting the slopes. You'll want to kill as many guards as possible before dropping over the edge. Once you're on the slope, you can't stop.
 ▼ Take out the parachuting troops before they hit the ground. Otherwise they'll come after you and they're incredibly tough to hit when you're on the move.

▲ He hasn't seen you yet. Be extremely cowardly and shoot him in the back.

▲ You're almost at the end. Kill the final two guards and you're home free.

NINTENDO⁶⁴

Dramatic deaths

Even when the heat is on, take your time to score a perfect hit.

Graze an arm, shoulder or leg and you'll wound your foe, but he'll keep on coming towards you with all guns blazing.

The best tactic is a bullet to the head as it guarantees a one shot kill. You may then be able to enjoy a cool death scene. Check out these two...

Down the stairs Force the enemy to the edge and pump his chest with lead. He'll lose his balance and take an almighty tumble. If the bullets don't kill him, his broken neck certainly will.

Over the banister This one looks as good as it does in the movies, Strike just at the right time and you can get the terrorist to lose his balance before toppling over the balcony. No one will be able to survive a fall like that.

Scoop!

This ace Bond blaster will also feature several cool multiplayer modes.
Unfortunately, we can't show any shots just yet, but we played it and it'll blow you away, big time!

A Daniel Carrington is the brains behind human contact with the Maian alien race. Make sure you listen to his words of advice. Select a silenced gun when you know the enemy's around to avoid attracting their attention when you pull the trigger.

Inside dataDyne

Training completed, you'll see a movie in which Joanna swoops across a futuristic city in a cool hovership.

The destination for the first mission is the dataDyne building, where Doctor Caroll's mayday is coming from. To complete the job you must be the master of stealth. Charging round with guns blazing will grab the attention of the other guards and they'll open fire in a split second. In one room, Cassandra's bodyguards switch out the lights. To survive, turn on your night sight and pump a bullet into them as you tiptoe past.

You'll be given your orders as you skim across the city rooftops.

Watch out for Cassandra's female guards as you try and get Doctor Caroll to the helipad.

The crafty ladies turn off the lights and rake you with lead. Just select your night sight...

... to see them in the darkness. Now you can sneak past them and return fire when their backs are turned, Nice shooting, Jo.

SOUNDS The addition of speech brings the game to life. With pounding tracks and creepy tunes, you'll be gripped.

Awesome weapons

You won't be disappointed with the impressive range of guns in Perfect Dark. You'll start each mission with a handful of weapons but, as you progress, extra blasters can be taken from dead enemies and added to your arsenal. Each weapon has a secondary function. Hold (B) and you'll be able to power it up...

Falcon 2

You will begin the game with a silenced version of this shooter. Top tip It only fires one bullet at a time, so use the sight to make each shot count.

CMP 150

A class submachine gun that has an impressive 32 rounds. Top tip To kill a pack of enemies, hold the trigger and they'll be history in no time.

Magnum DY357

A basic blaster that's very deadly if your aim's spot on. Top tip Master one shot kills as this doesn't hold much lead and takes ages to reload.

K7 Avenger

This rifle has a small magazine, but it packs a deadly punch. Top tip It makes a racket, so be careful when using it or guards will come running.

Save Doctor Caroll

Your main objective in dataDyne is to sneak through the basement to find Doctor Caroll.

Once rescued, you must negotiate the maze of corridors until you reach the helipad on the roof.

Don't rush too quickly though, or you'll lose Doctor Caroll and he'll be pounced on by the merciless dataDyne nasties.

Just remember, if he's blasted to pieces you'll have to abort your mission and start all over again. Take your time and you'll get out alive.

Sneak through the maze of corridors and pop anyone who blocks your path. Take that, creep.

To complete the mission, stick close to Doctor Caroll's side 'cos you'll need to get him out in one piece. ▼ Good work, Jo! Now sit back and watch the movie.

Clever enemies

The baddies won't die without a fight and you'll come up against some of the hardest quards ever seen in a video game.

Not only do they use walls and pillars to hide behind, they also run for cover and get help from other guards if they're in trouble. Your shots will need to hit home 'cos the goons can sidestep and roll out of the way, only to return fire if you don't hit them first.

The realism is gob smacking to say the least. Put a bullet between their eyes and just listen to their dying words as they scream the place down before dropping to the floor.

If your bullets don't hit their target straight away, the guards will dive for safety and return fire.

⋖ Watch out for that other guy, he's off to get back up. Turn your gun on him before he's through the door.

▲ Some clever troops even sidestep your bullets with ease. Make him pay with your second shot.

Use disguises

The plot really opens up as you progress to the top secret base known as Area 51.

The hideout is heavily quarded by dataDyne's crack troops who patrol every corridor. So instead of just blasting your way in, it's time to use a little bit of the old grey matter.

By putting on a disguise you can walk around Area 51 without being spotted by the guards.

Not only that, but they'll even greet you and wave you through into high security areas without any problems. Now doesn't that make a pleasant change!

Now you can enter top secret rooms. deep inside the base. Hey, that guy's going to open the door to let you in. Put on a lab coat and the thick gunmen will think you work in Area 51, allowing you to get past without any problems. What a bunch of morons!

Devastator

A big beast to hold. Can only launch one grenade at a time. Top tip Use only in a wide open space. If it comes back at you, you're dead meat!

Dragon

A bog standard assault rifle with lethal pump action. Top tip The Dragon can turn into a proximity mine that's disguised as a gun. Watch it go!

Sniper Rifle

It's got an awesome zoom and the bullets fly from the clip. Top tip Better make sure you have cover when you let rip with this baby.

Shotgun

Holds nine bullets, so blast like mad when you locate it. Top tip This is the ideal choice when you're having trouble with a pack of goons.

Hi tech toys

If you thought James Bond had the best gadgets, you haven't seen the ones Joanna Dark's got at her disposal.

Blasting away with meaty guns is one thing, but you'll need to use these class gizmos to complete some of Joanna's missions.

CamSpy

This small robot can fly into areas you thought were unreachable. Ideal for taking photos of top secret experiments and meetings without being seen by the enemy. Sneaky!

DrugSpy

Just like the CamSpy, you can fly this tiny robot unnoticed deep into enemy territory. The difference is you can pull the trigger and drug any bad guys using its dart gun.

Make sure you think before you charge into a

Horizon Scan

A hi tech pair of binoculars that can be powered up and used to see where the baddies are positioned from a distance. You can even zoom in and out to check what's around.

Night Vision goggles

Strap these on and the enemy scum will stand no chance. You'll be able to spot them in the darkness and pop them off without them seeing you. A top class gadget.

Meet Elvis

Deep inside Area 51, Joanna must rescue a poor little alien from a sinister operation.
This guy is known as Elvis, an alien who travels to earth at the request of Carrington.
But as Joanna tries to escape, scientists

But as Joanna tries to escape, scientists switch on the nerve gas instead of an alarm. You've only got a few seconds to get out.

▲ In Area 51, you must save Elvis from dataDyne.

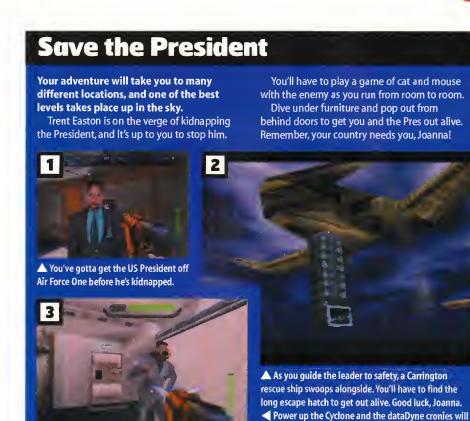

▲ Good going, Joanna. Now let's get the little guy out of the base.

Dressed to kill

With her arsenal of weapons and gadgets, Joanna Dark is ready for anything.

But to really make her a cut above the rest, Perfect Dark's got a wardrobe of clothes to suit any situation. Check out her threads...

▲ The combat suit doesn't restrict Joanna in the heat of battle.

A Her winter costume is great for camouflage against the snow.

▲ Thanks to her dark raincoat, Joanna Dark blends in perfectly on Chicago's rainy city streets.

It's not over yet

Remember the Carrington Institute from your training missions? If you do, you'll know how to get around this awesome level.

Carrington and Joanna are on their way to see the President, but an evil race of aliens called the Skedar have broken into the Institute.

This bunch of hideous mutants has fought the Majans for hundreds of years and now you've gotta help stop them. Better lock and load, it's time to go and kick some alien butt...

Waste the horrible Skedar monsters before they pounce and rip you apart.

As well as the Skedar, you've gotta contend with the dataDyne troops. Give 'em a hiding before they kill their hostages.

▼ Forget the giant monsters you've seen before, 'cos nothing will prepare you for the Skedar. You don't want to mess with these guys!

ONE PLAYER The missions are superb and will keep you coming back for one more blast. You'll glue this into your N64 until dataDyne is crushed.

Goldeneye v Perfect Dark

James Bond's mind blowing adventure wowed us when he blasted onto the N64 in the hugely successful Goldeneye 007.

We've been waiting ages for Perfect Dark, so let's take a closer look at who has the edge in the battle of the world's best super agents...

▲ Gobsmacking graphics Goldeneye 007 This action adventure was awesome in its day with detailed levels and characters. Perfect Durk With its jaw dropping movies and amazing graphics, Perfect Dark blows Goldeneye 007 out of the water.

Amazing missions Goldeneye 007 Each level made it feel like you were in the fantastic film. A treat for Bond fans. Perfect Dark Original futuristic levels will leave sci fi fans drooling. Perfect Dark beats it hands down once again.

▲ The main star Goldeneye 007 The name's Bond, James Bond, A super cool agent with a deadly shot. Perfect Dark Don't knock Joanna 'cos she's tough and ready for action. But Bond is the best.

A How it plays Goldeneye 007 The one player was classic, and the multiplayer battles were awesome. Perfect Dark Goes one better with tougher missions and an even better four player deathmatch.

◆ The verdict Goldeneye 007 A superb game that's stood the test of time. Available for £30, so you can't lose. Perfect Dark The new girl on the block means business. An essential buy for shoot 'em up fans. Bond was good, but this is better.

Enter the arena

Goldeneye 007 used to be the king of the multiplayer battle arenas, but wait until you clap eyes on this.

Even though the GB Camera option's been removed, Perfect Dark pushes the N64 to the max with a wide range of gameplay options. Packed with fresh levels and some old favourites to play to your heart's content, Perfect Dark is the business. Take a look at these....

Pipes

Drop into this dark arena and you'll find secrets around every corner. Look for ladders for a quick escape. Look out for...

The narrow pipelines. Run too close to the edge and you'll fall.

Skedar

The base is dead creepy with its flickering lights and tunnels. Watch for the enemy in the shadows. Look out for...

The excellent sniping opportunities. Use the pillars for cover, and fire.

Area 51

Out in the desert, dataDyne's secret base is packed with open areas. Master strafe shooting to win.

Look out for...

The maze of doors. Keep an eye on your radar and pump 'em with lead.

Complex

The tight corridors and superb sniping opportunities made it a classic in Goldeneye. Now it's back.

Look out for ...

The ramps to higher levels. The tiny hideout on the top level returns.

Take on the best

The enemy intelligence in Perfect Dark is so realistic that you'll be bowled over when you enter the Combat Simulator.

The aim of the game is to use stealth and cunning tactics to fight Simulants, computer controlled players with an awesome shot.

The battles really do feel like you're playing against a human opponent and, with up to four on screen at once, you're in for the fight of your life. Let's take a look...

⋖ Pummel Cassandra from high up and she won't stand a chance against the Dragon.

A Battling a Simulant feels just like you're playing a mate and they've got an awesome shot, too. To keep one step ahead of the Simulants, make sure you've learned every super agent trick.

Cool extras

To help you out during the multiplayer fights, check out the added features.

To soup up battles you can access the Turbo mode before you begin, so there's no more need to play like a maniac to open up this mode. Plus, you can turn off the radar for some awesome fights as you sneak round after each other in a cool hide 'n' seek game.

A Switch on Turbo mode and your heart will be pounding as you hurtle round the each arena.

▲ Turn off the radar for the ultimate battle. Check your opponents' screens to see where they are standing.

▲ That explosion's huge! Wait for it to burn out or the fire will kill you if you try to run past.

Double trouble

Battling with your mates in a four way fight is a blinding gaming experience.

But thanks to Perfect Dark's new and improved multiplayer options, two of you can plug in for some gun running mayhem.

Co operative mode sees you and a pal team up in a bid to outsmart the enemy in a cool one player objective.

Even better though is Counter Operative where you take sides in a single player level instead of joining forces with each other.

▲ In Co-operative mode you can select your victim and snipe them from high up on the clifftop.

▲ With two of you side by side in combat you can decide whether to act as back up for your mate or play every man for himself to see off the dataDyne goons.

Lie in wait for your rival to come round and send 'em packing with a shot to the head.

▲ Each time your mate kills you in Counter Operative you'll have to start again in a new area.

Telly classic

Forget Lara Croft, Joanna Dark's the gueen of the TV screen. In the run up to the launch of the game across the Atlantic, US Nintendoids were treated to a top telly advert for Perfect Dark.

▲ The teasing advert begins with a mysterious woman putting on lipstick and selecting her weapons.

As well as seeing the game in action, the actress who played Joanna Dark looked exactly like the computer game heroine.

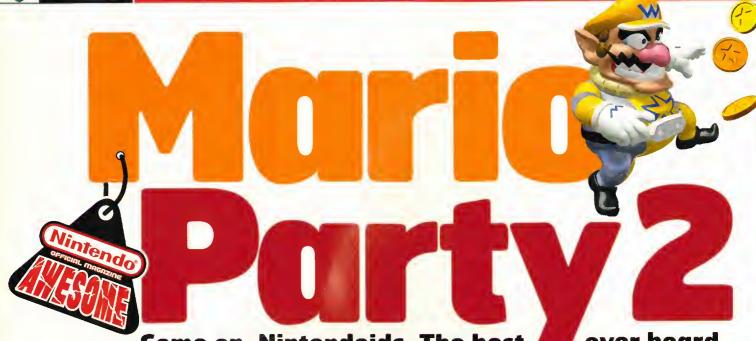

Let's hope we get something just as good when the game hits these shores on 30 June.

▲ Only then do you see the sharp shooting agent in all her glory. Doesn't she look just like Joanna Dark?

MULTIPLAYER Perfect Dark now holds the N64 multiplayer crown. With old faves and fun extras, this is the business.

Come on, Nintendoids. The best ever board Come on, Nintendoids. The best ever board game is back. You've got to fight for your right to party!

WE SAID "More thought has been put into the mini games. A superb title to own!"

The fun starts here

veryone's favourite plumber is back in town! Mario's here to inject some party style fun into your gaming diet.

Mario Party 2 is the ultimate board game. The first edition was superb, but this one is even better, with improved mini games and bigger boards to battle through. So grab some pals and let's party!

Time to race down the tunnel and get the fun going, All aboard, Next stop, fun central!

Welcome to Space Land. Only time will tell who's going to win, so let's join the gang and get going!

▲ The whole crew are here and they're up for some top board game action. Are you ready?

Meet the cast

Nintendo all stars to choose from.

As well as the lovely Mario, there are five other

With Luigi, Yoshi, Wario, Princess Peach and Donkey Kong

Wario

Choose to play as Wario and you'll find he's as devious as ever. This guy's gonna stop at nothing to win the game.

Mario

Three cheers for Mario! The happy chappie's ready for action and he's more than a match for all the other competitors.

Princess Peach

Princess Peach may well be the only girl, but you should never underestimate her. She can be as ruthless as the rest of them!

Donkey Kong

He may be slow, but the big fella is the strongest of the six characters and is a whizz at the mini games. Go, Donkey Kong!

Mario Party 2 is a big game, and it's so addictive that it can eat hours of your life!

After choosing your board, Toad gives you the option of a 20, 35 or 50 turn game.

A 20 turn game takes about an hour or so to play, so imagine how long a 50 turn game lasts! Better get that packed lunch made.

As you race towards the board, Toad asks how many turns you want in your game. Choose wisely!

Bonus time

Before you start playing, you must decide whether you want bonuses in your game or not.

Choose this option and you'll be awarded Power Stars at the end based on who did the best in the mini games.

Opt for bonuses in your game and there are loads more chances of getting your hands on the all important Power Stars.

▲ Whoever wins the most mini games is awarded a lovely shiny Power Star, and this time it goes to Mario!

At the end, the overall winner has to go head to head with dirty old Bowser. It's time to kick his ass!

LOOKS Full on

cartoon style graphics, with plenty of colour

and neat little touches to keep you interested.

Board stupid

There are five boards to party through and each one has a different theme.

So let's join the gang and take a closer look at all five lands...

Horror Land Day turns into night and back again after every two turns. Avoid the giant eyeball that chases you.

Mystery Land Split into four ancient relics. Check out the spooky curses for a great way to slow your opponents.

Come to a junction and it's up to you to decide which way to go. Check the Map to see where the Power Star is located.

Princess Peach changes outfit for the different levels.

Pirate Land Keep your eyes peeled for hidden treasure but watch out for the pirate ship's cannons!

Space Land Don't set off Bowser's Beam. If you get hit, it's time to say goodbye to your hard earned Coins!

Western Land You're all deputies in the wild, wild west. Avoid the old fashioned steam engine or it's back to the start.

Ready, steady, fun

If you're on the lookout for fun, then Mario Party 2's mini games are right up your street.

The game has a whopping 64 mini games to play through, over 10 more than the first edition. These range from the strange to the downright hilarious!

Some are quite tricky to master, while others require luck instead of skill. Either way, you'll be arguing over who's the king of the mini games long into the night.

Bobsleigh Run A fun and competitive racing game where, you've guessed, it you race downhill in bobsleighs.

Balloon Burst Not the hardest game, but a whole lot of fun. Bash (A) as fast as you Bowl Over Become the king of the skittle alley as you try to knock your opponents over with the bowling ball.

Lights Out It's time to bash your opponents with a giant mallet as a spotlight follows you around. Stupid, but satisfying!

Bumper Balls Balance on top of a huge ball and try to bounce opponents off the platform. Last longest to win.

Five turns to go

Things really hot up when it gets down to the last five goes. Don't worry if you're trailing in last place! Just hang in there, 'cos the game gives you a sporting chance to catch up.

Now there are six Coins to be won every time you land on a Blue Space. But the bad news is that the Red Spaces cost you six!

But the fun really gets going when two people land on the same space, as you've both got to risk Coins in a duel mini game. This can mean the difference between first and last place.

So remember, Nintendoids. It ain't over until the Toad says so!

Toad pops up to tell you who he thinks will be the ultimate winner. At the end, a Blue Space is worth six Coins, but a Red Space costs six.

Land on the Koopa Bank Space to get all the Coins deposited so far in the game. Win or buy a Mushroom and you get two rolls of the dice. They cost 10 Coins.

SOUNDS The usual Mario music and sound effects that fit the action perfectly.

Star gazing

If you want to be the winner in Mario Party 2, you'll need to get your mitts on the Power Stars. There are two ways to get one. You can either be honest and buy one, or be sneaky and start stealing!

To buy one, you've got to land on Toad's Space and he'll charge you a whopping 20 coins! Each time someone buys a Star, Toad moves to another part of the board. The race is on to be the first to catch him!

To steal one, you need to land on Boo's Space and, for a fee of 50 Coins, you can grab a super duper Power Star from your rivals.

Land on a space that Boo occupies and you can get him to steal a Power Star or Coin from an opponent. Sneaky!

Sometimes you'll stumble across a wooden box called a Plunder Chest. It contains a Power Star for your collection.

■ There's only one Toad on a board at any one time, so do your best to land on his space 'cos he's got a Power Star for you!

Buy a Magic Lamp to be warped to Toad who in turn will sell you a Power Star. At 30 coins, the Lamp isn't cheap. But hey, you've got to get your hands on those Stars somehow!

The space race

There are eight different kinds of spaces you'll find on the boards. Read on to see what each one can do for your character...

ONE PLAYER Mario Party 2 is a laugh in one player mode, but it's more fun with pals! You'll soon want to get a multiplayer game going.

Blue Space

Land here and receive three Coins to get you going. Believe us, you'll need every single Coin you can lay your hands on.

Red Space

Watch out, party fiends! You'll lose three Coins every time you land here, so it pays to avoid the Red Spaces at all costs!

! Space

Arrive at this space and it's time for a single player Chance Time mini game. Do well at these to be awarded mega Coins.

? Space

Different things happen on these spaces depending on which board you're playing, making this one a real wild card.

Item Space

Land here for a single player mini game, offering you the chance of picking up wicked items, like Bowser's Suit.

Bowser Space

If your move takes you to this space, you'll have big ol' Bowser to deal with. Watch out, 'cos he's sure to nick Coins from you.

Koopa Bank

Pass by and you've got to deposit five Coins, but if you land on this space you get all the Coins paid in so far!

Battle Space

There's a four player mini game on the cards if someone lands on this space. It's every character for themselves

Mini game land

Those good folk at Nintendo have included an option to let you skip to the mini games.

The catch is, you've got to have Coins to buy them with, so you've got to play a board game first. Life is tough, eh?

Once you've bought a few games, Mini Game Land opens up. It offers you a multiplayer board game and contains all the mini games on offer.

Roll up, roll up. Welcome to Mini Game Land. It's home to Woody, the large tree that tells you what to do.

Mini Game Land is a stripped down board that contains only Red, Blue and mini game spaces. We reckon that it's ideal if you really love the mini games.

A Now you can take part in all the mini games you've come across while playing across the other boards. Excellent for revisiting the games you loved.

A There are three types of mini game to play. You might find yourself taking part in a four player game, a one against three battle or a two versus two contest.

MULTIPLAYER A classic party game where getting one over your mates feels so good.

Mario Party 2 is an improvement on the first, with much better mini games, more exciting boards and a whole lot more fun. A sure fire party favourite.

Asteroids

What happens when an old classic gets a facelift, Asteroids Hyper 64, that's what!

WE SAID "Asteroids was a classic arcade blaster in the eighties, and the N64 version looks cool to go."

Retro fun

Asteroids gripped the entire world.
This simple but addictive game involved

This simple but addictive game involved blowing up asteroids and space craft. Now it's got an N64 makeover, and it's hoping to wow a whole new generation of gamers.

If your ship gets hit, you're rewarded with a massive firework display. The cost to you? One of your lives!

Asteroids Hyper 64 is a real test of your reactions and sharp shooting, 'cos the action's fast 'n' furious.

The first mega ship you encounter is a real tough cookie to crack, so keep shooting for its laser.

G0 18870

Level devils

There are an incredible 50 levels to crack, spread over five different space zones.

Unfortunately they've not used much of the N64's muscle in designing them, opting for colourful backgrounds and 3D asteroids.

Luckily, the action's non stop so you won't get a chance to check out the scenery.

▲ The backdrop doesn't change for 15 levels, but the game gets harder. ◀ Zone two's force field does strange things to your ship.

Crafty crafts

There are just three hi tech space crafts to choose from.

They're all equipped with the same basic weapon, but each one has unique handling.

If you're after a reliable all rounder, give the Excalibur a go. If it's a nippy blaster you want, the Dagger is the one for you. For those who need the added protection of a strong shield, the Longsword is the perfect choice.

► The dagger is really nippy, but it has a very weak shield. Perfect if you like to live on the edge. Which we don't!

■ The Longsword has a rock hard shield, but is a bit on the sluggish side. Still you can't have everything, can you? ▶ Just like the mythical sword, Excalibur is a mean weapon that's pretty good at everything.

Stuff to hit

Asteroids

You don't have to be a genius to work out that the aim of the game is to destroy stuff before you're blown into space smithereens.

And it's not just asteroids that require your sharp shooting. There are all manner of space perils to zap. Here's a selection of your foes...

Crystals

Keep blasting away at these Strange space organisms that, hunks of space junk. But once hit, break into smaller beware, they split into smaller pieces. They expand if they're chunks once shot. not destroyed quickly.

LOOKS With little variety to the backgrounds and wave upon wave of similar looking enemy objects, things get more than a bit repetitive. Excellent gameplay, though!

Some have really powerful shields and others hide behind asteroids only to blow their cover, trying to hit you.

These are super fast objects that career towards you. Get your shooting head on, one wrong move spells disaster!

There's been lots of retro game on N64. Here are old classics and the N64 versions.

SOUNDS Things are quiet out in space, but the guns sound like guns, and that's the main thing!

The big gorilla's grown up since his original arcade outing, and as you can see the graphics have improved a bit since then! DK64 is one of the best N64 games you'll ever play.

The original came out way back in 1979, and boy does it look dated. Where's the colour man! The updated version looks better, but the gameplay has remained very similar. Not a bad thing!

A real cult classic, featuring the boy on the bike who's just got to get the morning papers delivered! Although the N64 edition looks loads better, the original was much more fun to play.

A blaster with more than the average amount of shooting! Although loads better looking, the update is much like the original. We'd still take the arcade classic every time. Pretty sad, eh?

Blast your mate

There are two multiplayer games for you and your mates to get stuck into.

And they're a lot more exciting than the single player mode. Well, beating your mates is always more fun than thrashing the computer! Let's have a look at them...

Up to four of you on the screen at the same time. The aim of the game is to rack up more points than your opponents. The game ends when there's only one player left.

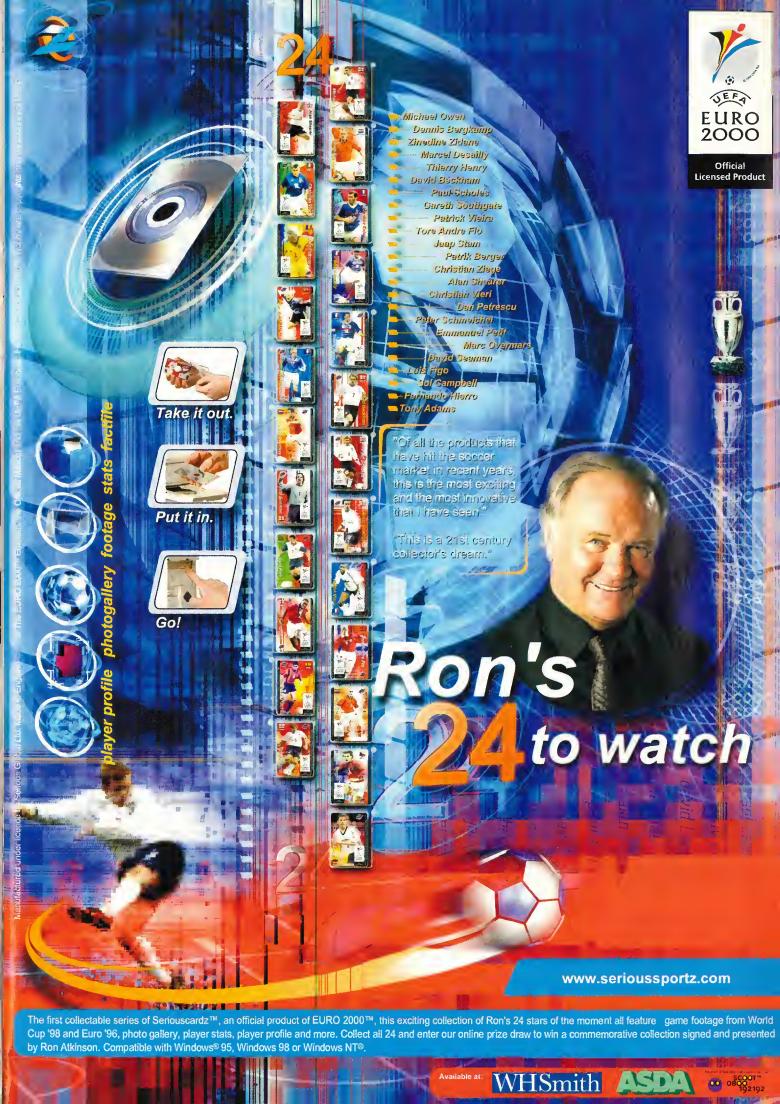

▲ Colour Clear

Each player has to shoot their corresponding coloured asteroids. If you accidentally shoot the wrong colour, the points go to the player whose asteroid you destroyed.

GAME LENGTH Things start off nice 'n' easy, but after a few levels the action really hots up. You'll have to be on top of your game to survive the onslaught.

Like all classic games, the idea's blindingly simple and the gameplay's red hot. And just like the original, this is addictive space blasting. It can get a little tiresome, but you will either love this or hate it.

Gangsters, undercover cops and high speed chases are powering onto your Game Boy. Hit the gas, Driver's coming to town...

Coast to coast

Life in the fast lane is about to move into top gear in one of the hottest engine burners to come screeching onto your essential pocket pal.

your essential pocket pal.

Anything goes in Driver as you enter the underworld in a bid to root out a criminal godfather called Castaldi.
Jump in behind the wheel of some

Jump in behind the wheel of some beautiful gas guzzlers and race as fast as you can across the highways and byways of the good ol' USA.

With a mountain of racing options, high speed chases and police squads to dodge, driving games have never before felt as good as this one.

▲ For tyre squealing, adrenaline pumping fun Driver hits the spot every time.

▲ Hit the highways and motor through alleyways and parks. Get out of there however you can!

The man for the job

Driver sees you play Tanner, a rebel cop who throws away his badge to stop ruthless Castaldi and his gang of goons.

The New York Police chief has ordered you to go to Miami to hook up with the bunch of violent, good-for-nothing crooks.

To become a friend of the mob you must prove you're a true getaway driver using your expert driving talents.

Only by completing the missions from state to state can you prove you're worthy enough for Castaldi's gang.

If you're good enough behind the wheel, you'll have no trouble infiltrating the local mob.

A Pull handbrake turns and burn through shortcuts to prevent being pulled over.

Castaldi's gang are mean, so show 'em who's boss as you race across Miami and the Big Apple.

Undercover operations

Your secret life as a friend of the gangsters begins on the streets of downtown Miami. Your first mission will see you picking up your pals from a bank robbery. The heist is made more dangerous as cop cars swarm all over the area.

To stop getting busted, an arrow next to your car points to where the next objective lies. Keep an eye on it and you'll be one step ahead of the police.

Make a aetawa

To make the grade as a gangster, you'll have to be firing on all cylinders as you navigate the city streets.

At the bottom of the screen there are two bars which increase as you go hell for leather down the busy streets.

Every time you smash into something, you'll damage your car. The mission is over when the meter becomes full.

▲ If you are going to smash into other motorists you will start wrecking your own car.

Keep ahead of the cops and they won't like it one bit. Now watch your Felony meter rise.

Putting pedal to the metal is easy, but if you succeed in keeping your head when the heat is on you'll see that Driver is a cops 'n' robbers classic.

Road signs, cones and rubbish bins are just some of the objects you'll have to dodge to stay one step ahead. Use handbrake turns to cut corners and lose the cops. Keep your foot on the gas and hit to rocket round. Remember, you don't have to stick to the streets.

Spin between the cars to avoid rush hour traffic.

▲ Go wherever you can and watch out for those cones!

▲ Cut across the open grass to shake them off your tail.

What it's about Take on the best karate fighters in the world to become a true martial arts master.

How it plays The simple controls are easy to learn. Mastering all the different combos will keep you coming back for more.

Best bit Using your shield to block the bouncing balls in the fantastic mini game. But you'll have to be at your sharpest, 'cos if just one gets through it's Game Over.

We think This golden oldie is still a pretty decent fighter, but it doesn't quite match up to Street Fighter Alpha. Having said that, this is still great if you want a karate game or just fancy reliving some old memories. Check it out.

GAME SCORE

Lise your shield to block the bouncing balls in this ace mini game. One miss and you'll be wiped out.

What it's about Off road racing is back on the grid In the sequel to one of the best Game Boy racers ever. Fasten your seat belt!

How It plays Select a high octane motor and bomb through cities and across baking deserts in Championship or Arcade mode.

Best bit A top three finish in every Championship race unlocks awesome motors and circuits.

We think TG Rally 2 looks brill and it still plays a mean race. But there's no Rumble Pak feature, like the original, which is a major let down. Still worth a look.

What it's about Lead Kou, the warrior's son, around Monster Tower to become the greatest tamer in history. Collect clues to help in your quest.

How it plays This will appeal to every RPG fan. Battling the huge number of monsters is brill.

Best bit Every time you return to the dungeons in the Monster Tower, they are always different.

We think Azure Dreams isn't as good as Link's Awakening DX, but it's still an enjoyable quest. In the wait for the Zelda trilogy, you won't go wrong with this.

GAME SCORE

▲ This is one massive adventure. Make sure you talk to the locals to pick up clues to help in your quest.

Little critters run riot through the Monster Tower. When they come near, give 'em a pasting,

What it's about The Rugrats crew have found a time machine. Take a step back in history, from ancient Egypt to the Wild West, and help poor old Chuckie find his missing pals.

How it plays This is a shoddy waste of time. Dodging the baddies is impossible and you'll soon be tearing out your hair when you lose a life and you're sent back to the start of the level. Too annoying to be fun.

Best bit Find the well hidden building blocks and you'll be able to battle the evil Angelica in the one brilliant bonus game in the entire adventure.

We think The cartoon series is ace, but we can't recommend this title at all. Despite being packed with colour and fun tunes, the action is slow and jerky. There's better value for money out there, even for our much younger readers.

GAME SCORE

How it plays It looks okay, but however hard you try, the motors never really get shifting.

Best bit There's enough challenge in the Championship mode to keep any rally king happy. The computer drivers are tough to beat, so you'll need to be good.

The Masters

No cheating!

All of these rock hard challenges are set so that true gamers win through. But unfortunately we keep getting entries from dirty cheaters.

These include US and Japanese racing game entries. And you can't use codes to help you get good scores unless we say so. Cheats MAY get away with it, but may be disqualified. Remember, Big Donkey Kong is watching YOU!

What to do

You can enter any challenge you see on this page, including the league tables.

So, if you fancy your chances at gaming fame and fortune, here's what you do...

1 Pick yer challenge, slam on yer N64 and get yer high score. 2 Take a pic of the TV screen with no flash. Taking it at an angle with the curtains drawn'll help. Or videotape your entry. 3 Write your name, address and score both on the photo/videotape and on a separate piece of paper. 4 Tell us how you scored your best time. We may well print your top tip. 5 Also, pop in a recent piccy of yourself looking daft. 6 Now post it to ...

Your Scores, NOM, Angel House, 338-346 Goswell Road, London EC1V 7QP.

7 Buy the mag to see if you made it to our Hall of Fame. If yer mug's in the mag your mates'll be well impressed.

Points win prizes!

If your score comes top of any of our high score leagues, then you'll win a cool official Nintendo Controller Pad or Rumble Pak. Wouldn't that be nice?

Mega Challenge!

This challenge has been set by Rare, creator of Goldeneye 007 and Perfect Dark. If you've got DK64, you've come to the right place.

The Rare Mega Challenge

"Score points in Enguarde's Arena by swimming through as many hoops as you can before the timer counts down to zero."

How to get Enguarde's Arena

Having trouble finding Enguarde's Arena? All you have to do is choose Adventure mode and keep playing until you eventually meet the Banana Fairy. Then, you need to get the Banana Camera and take pictures of six different fairles. Enguarde's Arena will now be in DK Bonus Games, under the Mystery option.

The final will feature the four top contenders. In the event of a draw, we'll be picking names from a hat. So your top score really has to be brilliant for you to be in with a chance.

All four winners will be invited to NOM Towers where there will be an epic multiplayer grand final in the DK64 Battle Arena.

Better practice the DK64 Battle Arena as well as Enguarde's Arena 'cos that is where the final is going to take place.

Make sure you include a phone number with your entry so that we can contact you. And leave Saturday 3 June free!

Closin' date and rules type stuff

1) The closing date for Rare Mega Challenge entries is Tuesday 23 May 2000.

2) The grand Mega Challenge final will take place on Saturday 3 June.

3) For the final contest itself, we make the rules! The Kongs you play with will be drawn from a hat, as will the Battle Arenas. The game set ups will also be decided by NOM.

4) Finalists who cannot make the stated final date will be disqualified and their place in the final will be given to the fifth place finalist.
5) The decision of the magazine is always final.

WE SAID "Stadium is essential for Poké fans. Battling 3D beasts is excellent"

Build the best team

How to create a world class Pokémon troop

If you're planning to build a team that can beat the best, in the hands of a good Trainer, there's a lot to learn.

So what are you waiting for? Read on, budding pro Trainer!

Catching tips

Getting the best possible team for Tournament battles isn't all about switching on your Game Boy and catching everything in sight.

There are very important tactics to take into account to be sure of success when you take your best critters to the Stadium. Pay attention.

Remember to catch your Pokémon at the lowest possible Level, or your stats won't be as good. But there's a lot more to it than that...

... even wild Pokémon of the same breed and Level have different stats. Go out and catch four of the same Pokémon with the same Levels...

... then compare their statistics. Choose a low Level friend who has the hest Attack stats. You can release the others 'cos you won't be needing them!

Now you can be sure that your critter will have the strongest Attack statistics possible after it reaches Level 100.

As well as catching low Level Pokémon, a good tip is to get a few monsters from the same breeds with differing Levels. That way they can qualify for different Tournaments.

Equipment

You don't want to find a Pokémon you want only to realise you don't have the equipment to catch it.

Better follow these guidelines!

Always have a weak Pokémon (Level 10-15) in your hunts. This creature will come in very handy to help injure weaker kinds and make them easier to catch.

Use a Pokémon who has a 5leep move. make the Pokémon you want fall asleep then capture it with cheaper Poké Balls.

Ultra Balls are only effective when a Pokémon's weak. It's a waste to use them on a critter with only a little damage.

Good training spots

It helps to know where in the game you can increase your Poké Levels quickly. Now you'll have an easier time training your team.

Mhen training up your monster's Levels, it's best to go to places that are packed full of Pokémon that are weak against your critter's attacks.

A For instance, if you want to train up a Water Pokémon quickly, go to a place like Mt. Moon where there are a lot of Rock Types who hate Water. Easy!

Or, if you are training Electric or Grass Pokémon, try surfing or fishing in water for wins and fast rising Levels.

Another good tip is to try battling the Elite Four again and again for mega Experience and loads of money!

Technical and Hidden Machines

These are your secret weapons so use them well

Technical Machines are moves that you can buy or gain in the Game Boy adventure to give to your Pokémon to make them stronger.

But you can also use them to make your Stadium team more awesome!

Secrets of Technical Machines

When you use your PC to decide which TMs to give to which Pokémon, there are a couple of things you should bear in mind.

Follow our advice and each Pokémon in your team can have a secret weapon that will surprise and damage the opponent into defeat.

If you give a TM to a Pokémon of the same Type, you're wasting it. What's the point? It's got moves of that Type already.

Use TMs to give you a real advantage. Your opponent won't know your Pokémon has these TMs until it's too late!

📤 A great tip is to give your Pokémon the type of TM that damages enemies that it is weakest against. Confused? No need! We'll give you an example to set you straight...

A For example, Electric is weak against Ground. Ground is weak against Water, Grass and Ice Types. So give Electric Pokémon a Water, Grass or Ice TM.

Then they'll be able to give as good as they get against Ground Types in battle. Your rival won't have a clue what's battering them! Another option is to give a TM to a Pokémon that doesn't already have any of those Type Moves to make it even stronger.

Using Technical Machines means that you'll be able to build a much more varied team and will be less likely to get caught out against a Type you're weak against.

Really keen Stadium contenders might even want to start their Game Boy adventure again so they can gain all the TMs they need from scratch.

Now you have this information, go and get as many new TMs as you can from your Game Boy adventure and mix and match them with your Pokémon's moves.

But wait! There's no need to lose your old Pokémon when you start a new game. Save all your monsters and items onto the N64 cart in the Pokémon Lab.

Expert training tips

There are a few pointers you need to know during, and even after your Pokémon has been trained to Level 100.

Never ever use Rare Candy or put your Pokémon into daycare to raise their Levels. It's just not worth it. Your stats will lower rather than rise.

A If your Pokémon has a weakness in one of his categories (Attack, Defence, Speed, Special), use Stat Boosters to even up the odds.

Speed is the most important statistic of all, as it allows you to get an attack in first. Just make sure you have the moves to back it up!

Keen feeding them items until they won't take any more. This is usually 10 of each. You can boost your stats by nearly 30 Points!

▲ Characters like Mewtwo won't accept Stat Boosters at all. Also, make sure your Pokémon Level isn't too high when you give these, it may not accept it.

Stadium mode,Round Two

Did you think Round One was difficult?

You've beaten Round One, which was easy even with Rental Pokémon.

You're now entering the world of the real Poké Masters, where you'll need to use your own hand reared Pokémon. Good luck, you'll need it!

At the Club Morio controls this month are Dove and Tim, who hove worked liked sloves to get through oil your ace letters that have poured into NOM. Let's heor it for them!

MARIO'S WINNER!

"When playing Pokemon, change the language option to French or German. Then you can find out all of your favourite critters' names in another language."

Samuel Reynolds, Suffolk

What a cool idea, and I suppose it's one way of learning a new language. Although how useful it would be on holiday is debatable, unless of course you met up with another budding Pokémaniac. Tim

"The Tilt Sensor Pak sounds like a great feature of Dolphin! Let's hope Fony or Saga don't try and steal this cool idea."

Kevin Grice, Merseyside

■ They've got a habit of doing that, haven't they, what with the 3D Stick rip off! Dove

"I've heard rumours that Donkey Kong Land is coming to the Game Boy Color. Can it really be true?"

Ian Gordon, Barking, Essex

■ The Kongs are back on

■ The Kongs are back on GB this summer, but it'll be called DK Country. We can't wait! Tim

"The most important thing to me in a game is ideas rather than graphics, because it's the ideas that count!"

Terry Starling, Didcot

■ Ideally, we'd like both. But with Pokémon, people love the idea which seems to prove your point. Tim

"I'm dying to get my hands on International Track & Field Summer Games. I was wondering whether it would come with protective gloves, 'cos I've heard that some button bashing games in the US have included them."

Michael Pentrose, Cardiff

Protective gloves! Those Yanks are such wuses! As far as we're concerned, if your fingers aren't bleeding, you're not having fun! Tim

■ It's a fantastic game, and if you're worried about hurting your fingers, it's time to get your woollen mittens out. You'll need them. Dove

"In Pokémon Red and Blue, do wild Pokémon appear on a timer or does it depend on where you decide to walk?"

Rebecca Cusworth, Northumberland

■ On a timer! Have you ever seen a Pokémon with a watch? Wild Pokémon can't tell the time you know! It depends on where you walk, Rebecca. Dave

MARIO'S WINNER!

"I think that both good graphics and ideas are important. A game without one of these qualities is not worth getting, whilst a game with both, like Goldeneye 007, has the potential to be a true Nintendo classic."

Matthew Stevenson, Cornwall

■ If you want a game that has both awesome graphics and excellent ideas, turn to p18 for the review of Perfect Dark. It totally rocks! Tim

"I would just like to say thanks to NOM for the Game Boy magazine. Now I know what games to get. My mates loved it so much they wanted to buy it from me!"

Shaun Smith, Essex

■ Glad you like it and, as with the rest of NOM, you can trust us because we love the Game Boy. Tim

If you had to do time in Bowser's Prison, which three N64 games would you take? Send in your list of three games and why you'd take them and you might win yourself a top N64 game.
But please note. You MUST send a photo with your entry!

Aaron Jones

My three games would be...

1 WWF Wrestlemania 2000

Why? You can make no end of characters to play in all the different matches.

2 Command & Conquer

Why? This war sim's packed with challenge and the varied missions really rock.

3 Resident Evil 2

Why? It's a great game that takes ages to complete and it's got four different scenarios, too.

Before you send us your e-mails, check out the red box below. Follow these simple rules and you'll get a reply more quickly!

"I bought the new farm sim Harvest Moon 64 when I was in America and I would give it 95%. It's a brill game. I have a crazy friend who said there is going to be a Harvest Moon 2, is he just mental or will it come out later in the year?" Lesley Alcook

■ We're hoping Harvest Moon 64 will get a release over here. As for your friend, he's as mad as a coot. There's no such game.

"I know it's not your fault if games get delayed, but could you not print release dates unless you're ABSOLUTELY sure they're accurate. So far, Perfect Dark has jumped from Summer 1999, to Christmas 1999, to April 2000, to May 2000, to June 2000! That's almost a whole year!" Kikuchi

It's tricky. On one hand, we're constantly bombarded with release date enquires, and on the other hand we want to get it right for you. It's a real no win situation.

"I'm a Pokémaniac from Scotland and I'd just like to know why there were no Scottish Pokémon tour dates. There are lots of Pokémaniacs like me in Scotland, so why not have an event or two in Glasgow or Edinburgh? I was really looking forward to challenging you." to challengi

Alex Faithfull

The reason

■ The reason we didn't come to Scotland is because the tour is in partnership with TOPPS Premier League stickers, which is obviously an English thing, We'll definitely be up there for the Official Championship which kicks off during the summer.

A few e-mail rules

We'll do our best to reply to all your e-mails, but we need your help to do this. Follow these simple rules to get a speedy response...

- Keep to short messages! We don't have time to read 500 word e-mails.
- Number your questions and keep 'em brief.
- Put everything in one e-mail, rather than sending six.
- Look at page 3 of the mag. Only send e-mails to the right people.

MARIO'S WINNER!

"I would call Dolphin the Nintendo Shark. Sharks are a lot more powerful than dolphins, and when it comes out, it'll be the most powerful console around." Tony Massey, Chester

I like your thinking, Tony. I for one can't wait to hear what they're going to call it. Dave

"I reckon one of the first games on the Game Boy Advance should be a Mario game, a Pokémon adventure or a Zelda RPG."

Sean Jacobs, Brixton

Although there isn't any official word on the launch titles, I'd think one of those games will make an early appearance. Tim

"I adore James Bond, so I'm wondering if you could tell me when The World Is Not Enough is coming out, and whether it'll be for the N64 or Dolphin?"

Thomas Beesley, Devon

■ It's for the N64 and it should be with us in October. Check out p6 for our Big Game feature 'cos it looks totally wicked. Tim

"I've played both Ridge Racer 64 and Beetle Adventure Racing and I'm surprised to say it, but Ridge Racer 64 beats it hands down. Well done, Nintendo."

Malcolm Richie, Derbyshire

- It's a pretty close call, Malcolm, but we also think RR64 is better. Only just, though! Dave
- I have to say those radical power slides are total brown trouser moments of gameplay. Tim r Miyamoto, the legend who created Zelda and Mario, is back in the NOM hot seat to answer more of your searching Nintendo questions. As always, we print his answers in full...

Send

Are you sad that the 64DD won't be released in America and Great Britain? Also, which one of the 64DD titles do you like best and play the most?

Mike Curtis, Bedford

As of today, I like Talent Studio. I can feel the future in this software. The Polygon Studio that shall be completed soon is another odd tool-software Hike. This under-development software is still more like an actual tool now, but it will evolve into a more entertaining application.

The Starfox game on the Super NES was brilliant and Lylat Wars on the N64 ruled my life for ages. Will there ever be another one? Starfox: Dolphin Edition would be incredible!

Harry Steele, Somerset If many of you can make requests like this one, the possibility shall become higher. Many of the Starfox team members want to make the sequel. As we are reviewing several plans, please look forward to it, just a little bit.

There are now lots of complaints about counterfeit software. Has Nintendo found a way to combat piracy for Dolphin?

Michael Seaward, via e-mail

Yes. It is the biggest reason why we have partnered with Panasonic which has solid anti-piracy measures. On the other hand, while this kind of technical countermeasures are necessary, I believe that the most important thing is for everyone to have the recognition, "illegal copying is bad deed."

Have you ever produced a game just for fun which wasn't released to the public? Can you tell me about it?

Dave Kelsal, London

I can't think of a single game like that. However, in my time I have tested so many different ideas and some of which have not been integrated into games, such as odious-looking creatures that move, creep or walk in very disgusting ways.

I've read in a previous issue of NOM that you're a huge fan of Rare's games for Nintendo. Which one Rare title would you say is your favourite so far?

David Stanley, Ballymena

I loved the first Donkey Kong game. I also liked Snake Rattle 'n' Roll because of its good combination between the technology and idea. I am now really looking forward to playing Perfect Dark.

Send your Miyamoto questions to the usual address.

Adrina

Send your Ask Rare questions to the usual NOM address and we'll forward 'em to Uncle Tusk, Rare's grumpy spokesperson. Just don't expect a polite answer!

"Is there any chance of Rare releasing an N64 cart with all of Ultimate's Spectrum games? Or how about a 3D version of Sabre Wulf? I'd love to play these great titles on my Nintendo 64!"

Ben Pearson, Whitam

Well, Rare still owns the rights so it's possible, but don't forget that Ultimate games are more or less unknown outside the UK. So for now, let's be satisfied with sneaking old classics into new games. Check out the Jetpac game which makes a welcome reappearance in Donkey Kong 64.

"When you take a break from playing Mickey's Racing Adventure on your Game Boy, do you ever play Pokémon?"

'Cubone Killer', via e-mail

I know that some of Rare's staff have played through the game, and not just those who work on the Game Boy teams. But me personally? I'd rather spend a weekend tidying up my sock drawer. Just between you and me, I'd like to poke Pikachu's eyes out with his stupid spiky tall. I hope you don't think I'm too harsh. "If you could get any actress to play Joanna in a movie of Perfect Dark, who would it be? Janet Howarth, Manchester

It would have to be Roseanne Barr, if only for the striking physical resemblance. What, you mean seriously? How would I know, you gibbering dunce? I asked the designer and he said anyone except Gwyneth Paltrow. How's that?

"Your old mates Maya and B Orchid were babes! Did you ever take them out for a night on the town?"
James Waters, London

If you were so depressed that you auctioned yourself off in a card game, would that be Bridge Over Troubled Waters? Ho, ho! Er... I've ended up married to Maya, so I must have taken her out on the town at some point, yes.

"Will we ever see you appearing in another Nintendo game, Mr Tusk, or are you just another washed up video game has been?"

Paul B, via e-mail

Of course! Keep an eye out for my starring role in Killer Instinct 3, a Dolphin launch title, this Christmas (snigger).

You can ask Uncle Tusk questions on line. Check out Rare's site, at www.rareware.com

"Dolphin should use Mini Discs instead of CDs, as they are smaller and store just as much data." Michael Wolanski, Sterlingshire

Be prepared for a rude answer when you ask Rare's Uncle Tusk.

■ Michael, you haven't been watching Tomorrow's World! DVD discs can hold over seven times more data than a Mini Disc, so there! Tim

"Come on, guys. Pokémon Stadium is the best game ever. The graphics are incredible and the gameplay is just short of genius! So why did you give it only 90%?"

Andrew Holbert, Dorset

■ Strange as it seems, not everyone loves Pokémon! We had to bear that in mind when marking it. Tim

MARIO'S WINNER!

"No offence, but WHAT! You only gave WWF Wrestlemania 2000 91%. All my friends and I agree it should have got at least 95%. Come on, people! Think about it."

Darren Matthews, County Down

Rest assured, the person who marked it has been taken down to our basement and made to play Clayfighter 63 1/3 for 24 hours, non stop. He's very, very sorry now. Dave

"Thanks for the Game Boy mini mag. I sold the magazine to my younger brother! We've decided to buy Tomb Raider between us." Emran Ali, Herts

■ Lara's Game Boy adventure is totally brill. Take a look at the toptastic Driver, reviewed this month. It's a wheel spinning classic! Tim

■ So you sold it to your brother, eh? By my reckoning, you owe NOM half of what you sold it for. Cough up please, Emran! Dave

"If Nintendo want to make lots of money from the Game Boy Advance, the first release should be an updated Pokémon game. It would sell like hot cakes!"

Mark Linder, Gillingham

■ Imagine a whole new adventure with much, much better graphics and improved sound. Please, Nintendo. Make it for us! Tim

"I'm really looking forward to Dolphin's release. I think a top name for it would be Old King Console, because as soon as it comes out it will take the throne and rule over the SnoozeStation 2 and Dreampants!"

Ashley Gordon, Northern Ireland

■ We see your point, Ashley. And for more Dolphin info, turn to p94. Tim

"The N64 is the best console ever, but it could do with more beat 'em ups like Street Fighter, Marvel vs Capcom or even Dead or Alive." Andrew Nizinskyj, Barnsley

■ 1 agree, Andrew, We should have more beat 'em ups. And with Dolphin promising a more adult line up of games, we should have some ace fighters very soon! Dave

Why not check out Super Smash Bros. in the meantime? It may look like another cute title, but it sure packs one hell of a punch. Tim

MARIO'S WINNER!

"I got a Dreampants for Christmas. Then I heard that Pokémon Stadium and Perfect Dark were coming out, so I decided to sell it. My brother was furious, so I borrowed Zelda and got him to play it. He was amazed! He now loves Nintendo and helped me sell my Dreampants."

Jafrey Khan, Tottenham

It's good to see you've both seen the error of your ways.

Dreamcastitis is a nasty virus, best treated by extended periods of Nintendo game play. Just call me Dr Timothy. Tim

What's the best multiplayer game on the N64, and why?

How much do you think Dolphin should sell for?

Keep your drawings of the NOM team coming in.

"I think Pokémon Stadium is completely different when you compare it to the Game Boy game, because it doesn't have the adventure part."

Colin Taylor, Waterlooville

■ Very true! And how cool is it to see a rock hard pocket monster you've raised from a low Level strut its stuff in Pokémon Stadium? Way cool, that's how cool. Tim

"I think that game makers should concentrate on great originals like Zelda or Goldeneye 007, rather than just bringing out loads of sequels. They're boring!"

Mott Rowe, Plymouth

■ It does seem that game creators often take the easy option by releasing a sequel of a popular title. But then again, is anyone going to complain about a brilliant Zelda sequel? Not us, that's for sure! Dave

"A good release for Game Boy Advance would be Mario World. It was great for the SNES and would sell loads for the GBA."

Som Richordson, Eost Sussex

- Ah, you're making us all misty eyed by talking about Mario World. We'd sell our grannies to see Mario World on the GBA. Tim
- Please note. As a mag, we don't condone the selling of grandparents. Who else is going to fart over the Christmas dinner? Dave

"The more I hear about Dolphin, the more I think Dreampants owners should bln their machines." Jomes Spencer

"To all the people who used Mewtwo at the Dublin event, shame on you. He's so predictable. Try Articuno, he's much cooler. Seon Duffy

"I beat Rich when I battled him at the Pokémon Tour 2000 in Bristol. Me and my friends think that he's a real wimp. What a pushover." Dovid Sheor

"The Goldeneye 007 cheats you printed get the big thumbs up. They're cool!"

"I'm surprised that Pikachu isn't in Mario Party 2." Seb Green

"Pokémon Stadium's better than the Game Boy game 'cos the battles are in 3D and the mini games are brilliant." Niall Hurrington

020 7880 7414

"Without great ideas, games would be really dull. No amount of excellent graphics can make up for a poor idea."

Seb Faulkes, Shropshire

You're not wrong, Seb, which is why we're as interested in the ideas for games as we are in the graphical power of the Dolphin. Dave

"Will I be able to play my old GB games on the Game Boy Advance? Will they look better?" Andrea Crossley, Norfolk

■ You sure will, Andrea! All your old Game Boy games will work fine, although we're not sure whether they'll look any better. Tim

"I really like bike games, but Jeremy McGrath Supercross 2000 looked crap. What's coming up?"

Dovid Gregory, Scotland

■ Check out Excitebike 64 when it comes out in September. Until then, why not give Supercross 2000 a go? Tim

"Could you clear something up for me? Is WWF Smackdown ever coming to the N64? I haven't heard anything about it lately." Neil Cottrell, Surrey

■ No, it's not coming to the N64, but WWF Wrestlemania 2001 is coming out later this year, and the word on the street is that it's even better than the first one. Dave

"I think Pokémon Stadium is a lot more fun than the Game Boy adventure because you can battle your mates in 3D. The mini games are just overwhelming." Robert Melvin, Hoilshom

■ Sounds like it had quite an effect on you, Robert. Pass the tissues. I've come over all emotional. Tim

"I demand to know whether Rich used cheats to make his Mewtwo so hard. It wiped out my Mewtwo!" Simon Smollmon, Somerset

■ We tortured Rich, and he still claims it's all down to hard work. Judging by the blisters on his thumbs, we believe him. Dave

MARIO'S WINNER!

"I'm a great fan of the TV series Robot Wars, and I think it would make a fantastic game for the N64. You could design your own robots and battle them in cool arenas." Richord Bennet, Coventry

You are a living genius, Richard! No, not you, Marsh. If there's a Nintendo god, then he should ensure this game makes it to the shops. Tim

"I didn't get a badge when I beat Dave on the Pokémon Tour. Where's my badge? My friends won't believe I won."

Dermot Finnaly, Belfost

We're so sorry we couldn't get the winners badges ready in time for the dates in Belfast and Dublin, Rest assured, we have all your names and addresses and we'll be getting them in the post soon. Dave

"I read a preview of Pokémon Snap in the December issue of NOM and it looked absolutely brilliant. Is there any news on the UK release date?"

Jay Corney, Somerset

Start saving your dosh,'cos it'll be out around October time, as will the mega cool Pokémon Pinball on the Game Boy Color. Tim

"I wanted to know whether I have to get Pokémon Stadium to play Pokémon Red on my TV?"

Seon Chopmon, Monchester

You will have to get Pokémon Stadium. But remember, you won't be able to play the adventure part of the game in 3D, only the battling. Tim

"Why has Perfect Dark been given a 15 certificate? I'm 13, so I'll not be able to play it for ages. Thanks very much, Nintendo!"

Tim Adlebrook, Sheffield

■ I know it's annoying having to wait all that time. The reason is the violence in the game, which is deemed unsuitable for people under 15 years of age. Bummer. Tim

"First Lara Croft and now Solid Snake. What's going on? Who else is coming from the GreyStation, Crash Bandicoot? I'm not complaining though, 'cos I love Lara Croft. What a babe!"

Nick Hearderfull, Surrey

- The reason is the amazing success of the Game Boy Color. Everyone wants to get in on the action and, as long as the games are up to scratch, we don't mind one bit! Tim
- Hold tight for the arrival of Croc, 'cos the lovable reptile's on his way to your portable pal! Dave

"Do you think Dolphin will let gamers play over the Internet? I'd love to be able to play Perfect Dark or Goldeneve 007 with people all over the world." James Calderhill, Cardiff

■ Although nothing firm has been announced, we've heard Nintendo big wigs dropping hints about it. So it sounds as if they're at least considering it. Dave

"I was at the Dublin Pokémon event, and I just want to say thanks for a great day. I had some brilliant battles, but Dave was just too strong for me!"

Seon Kelly, Dublin

■ We've been having loads of fun doing them, and in the process we've discovered some awesome Pokémon trainers across the land. They've managed to teach us things that we didn't know. Dave

"I've heard whispers about a Rare game called Dinosaur Planet. Is it true, 'cos l've not seen any screenshots or anything. Come on NOM, spill the beans!" Ismor Deerika, Wiltshire

- We've been hearing things too, and for all we know at present, check out p82 of our official news section for more info. Dave
- Next month we'll be spilling a whole sack full of beans on it, including screenshots! Tim

MARIO'S WINNER!

'I'm sick to death of Nintendo charging rip off prices for their games. I'd love to buy Perfect Dark or Super Smash Bros, but at £40 to £50 a game you've got to be joking!" John Govier, Exeter

- They are expensive, mainly due to the high costs of making the carts. The good news is that Dolphin will use DVD discs which are cheaper to make. Dave
- It's always worth shopping around and checking out mail order companies. They often have great deals. Tim

Here at NOM we love to win, even if it makes kids cry.

Do I not like that...

Meet Dominic and Adam, two Nintendo 64 nuts who are both from Billericay in Essex.

Poor old Dominic can't beat Adam at ISS 98. To prove it, they play a game. Dominic loses despite an early lead.

Both Adam and Dominic love ISS 98, but poor old Dominic always loses. It's just so unfair! Adam is victorious, yet again. Don't worry, Dominic. We'll wipe the smile off his facel

First half

After only 17 seconds, Tim goes 1-0 up after scoring with a complete fluke of a rebound.

Adam piles on the pressure and wins a corner. It's 1-1.

his is important. If you wanna enter the OFFICIAL Pokémon Championship, you must fill in the entry form on page 73. All the 'League' entries we've received so far were JUST FOR THE MAGAZINE. Got that? The Pokemon Championship IS the League! And if you want to take part, then you MUST fill in the form.

We'll continue to print our fave teams in Pokémon Centre but, if winning the Pokemon Championship is your ultimate dream, get scribbling.

Photocopies of the entry form will not - repeat NOT - be accepted. We're afraid you're going to have to cut up your mag. But it'll be worth it!

It's gonna be tough!

We're still getting hundreds of Pokémon teams every week, and it looks like the Official Championship's gonna be vicious!

As well as posting your entries for the Championship, keep sending us your teams and photos. We'll print the ones we like in Pokémon Centre.

If your team's at a low Level, you'd better get training. The Championship's gonna be full of powerful Pokémon Masters!

We're trying to arrange Mew downloads for people who won Gold Badges in the NOM Pokémon Tour, but THIS HAS NOT BEEN CONFIRMED, AND IT MAY NEVER HAPPEN! Again, make sure you stay tuned in for the details.

As always, you can be sure that Nintendo Official Magazine will be first with all the Poké news. Look out for a future issue when we'll give you all the details to get Mew.

Your Poké Tips

If you've found any cool stuff when playing, make sure to send your hints and tips to Professor Oak. He'll let you know if he thinks they're any good or not...

"Once you've beaten a Team Rocket member, go and talk to them again. They'll give you loads of tips and hints." Mark Berisford, Somerset

"Good point, Mark. And that's the only way to get the Lift Key. Without this you can't fight Rocket boss Giovanni."

"If an enemy uses a Bide move on you, don't use your most powerful attack or you'll get hurt. Use your weakest attacks to spoil their fun."

Imran Khan, Birmingham

"Great tactics, Imran. Bide is the reward for beating Brock in Pewter City."

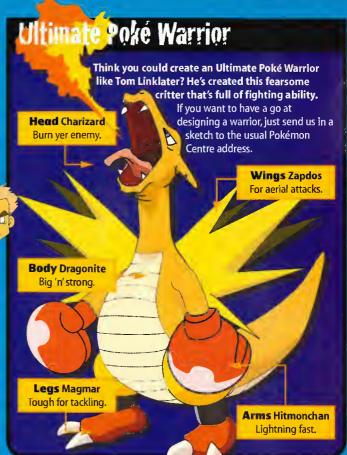

■ "If you've got a Pidgeot or Fearow and you're fighting a Dragonite, use its Mirror move to counter the Dragonite's Hyper Beam." Alex Sperotti, Glasgow

"Dragonite's Dragon attack can do damage to Pidgeot and Fearow, but it's equally effective when sent back against a Dragonite."

Are you on the Poké trail? Do you want to catch all 150? Look no further!

OFFICIAL MAGAZINE

Pokémania hits the road!

he Nintendo Official Magazine Pokémon Tour 2000 has just ended, and it was a storming success!

Pokémaniacs from all over the country came along to challenge the NOM Pokémon Masters - and each other - in fearsome battles. After winning five battles against other Trainers, Poké fans got to challenge NOM, with the chance to get exclusive Gold Badges. But no one went away empty handed. Losers got a sticker saying "I got my ASS KICKED by Nintendo Official Magazine!"

We would love to show you some ace photos from the show. However, Dave's car got broken into in Dublin city centre, and the thieves stole his camera! And his Pokémon carts. And his Psion organiser. And, worst of all, his Game Boy...

If you beat Dave in a battle, don't worry. He'll be sending you a Gold Badge as soon as the tour ends.

▶ The Gold Badges weren't ready for the Irish shows, but Dave will post them out as soon as he can.

Eastleigh

The Eastleigh show was another mad event, with Dave having to challenge more than 200 feisty Trainers.

If you managed to beat Dave, well done! His Articuno was pretty mean that day, but quite a few Mewtwo's managed to topple him.

If you ended up losing, never mind. You'll just have to keep training for the Pokémon Championship which is later this year. If you practice really hard you could end up being a winner too!

Eastleigh Winners

Here are some of the Pokémaniacs who beat Dave. Well done!

A Robin Goodman

Nobody can survive the wrath of McComb, heh, heh, heh! Ooh, look at his posh throne!

Eastleigh Losers

Pah! These guys felt the force of Dave's Mewtwo and Articuno.

Michael James

Bristol

Bristol went Poké mad for a day, and the Bristol elite certainly gave Rich and Al a run for their money!

Mewtwo was the Pokémon of Choice, both for the NOM team and their challengers, with Blizzard being the most popular attack.

Well done to everyone who toppled the NOM team. And to the brave losers - keep training! Who knows, maybe you'll get even later this year...

Bristol Winners

Rich and Al were on fire at Bristol! If you beat them, you're a Master.

▲ Thomas Brandfield

Bristol Losers

So, how did you feel losing to Dave's fearsome trainees? He taught 'em all they know!

ario carved up the golf course. Now he's set to cane the court in the ace sporting spectacular, Mario Tennis 64. It will have all the same mechanics as Mario Golf, so expect awesome gameplay with a few cool surprises along the way, including sparkling racquets which will launch blazing balls towards your opponent.

All your favourite characters are here and each one will have unique abilities. Peach lacks power, but her touch is excellent and Toad is one of the nippiest around the court. As you'd expect, Mario is a natural all rounder and he'll take some beating.

The game boasts a four player option so you'll be able to get your mates round for some awesome doubles matches. Most exciting of all, you can use the Transfer Pak to download characters from the new Game Boy edition.

Luigi plays a great drop shot. There's no way Peach will reach it in time. The Italian fella's bound to win this point. ✓ Looks like nasty Waluigi's got to hit back a super fast blazing ball from Mario. Will he get it over the net?

- ▲ That's not fair. Waluigi's racquet is twice as big as Peach's. But size isn't everything, is it?
- The grass court is incredibly fast. Learn your craft on the slower courts before taking up this rock hard challenge.

Meet Waluigi

Along with all the old faves, one new evil dude is set to make his mark. Waluigi is Wario's younger brother.

A dead ringer for Luigi, he's hoping to kick some ass on the singles court. Together with Wario, they're a rock hard doubles partnership.

▼ Here's Wario's little brother, Waluigi. He's bubbling with hatred for our heroes, and his aim is to to ruin Luigi's career.

▲ Waluigi has lots of evil tricks up his sleeve, just like Wario. This fire ball return looks like a winner.

We think...

Mario Tennis 64 will be awesome. The characters may be cute, but the gameplay will be incredible and very realistic. Check out next month's issue for more info.

Bia Mountain NEW FOR Game Info NINTENDO,64

By: South Peak Type: 3D Snow racer

Release: TBA

rab your skis and hit the piste, as Big Mountain 2000 tumbles down the slopes.

For the first time on the N64, gamers will be able to choose either skis or a snowboard before opting for one of the ace gameplay options.

Hit the slopes for all out race action, or try your hand at the Time Trial or Stunt challenges.

The game features six cool competitors, and each one will have strengths and weaknesses so ou'll need to pick wisely for each discipline.

As with all racing titles, every course will be acked with alternative routes and there'll also be a few sneaky shortcuts thrown in, but you'll need a quick eye to spot them.

Big Mountain also boasts a two player option, so you and your mates can slush 'n' slide right to the ottom of the slope.

Tricky tracks

Cool stunts

Day and night racing

Each track features multiple routes. Make the wrong choice and you could have problems keeping your lead.

A You're eight seconds off the pace. Improve your cornering and you'll shave seconds off your time.

You've come a cropper is you approach the checkpoint. Better pick yourself up and get a move on or it'll be Game Over. The crowd goes wild as you reach the finish line. Make a mistake now and you'll look pretty stupid in front of all those people.

■ Big Mountain 2000 features an ice cool multiplayer mode. Radical. dude!

We think...

1080° Snowboarding is still one of the best racers on the N64 and this looks just as good. If we get a good variety of tracks, we could have a hit on our hands.

Donkey Kong Country

repare to go ape again as Donkey and Diddy burst back to life on your Game Boy Color.

It's hard to believe, but what you're seeing here is the original Super NES DK adventure. Rare has used all its magic to recreate the 16 bit experience on your portable pal. The game features all the levels and a host of brand new bonus stages and hidden areas.

There are also rumours that Diddy's Kong Quest and Dixie's Double Trouble will be given the Game Boy Color treatment. Stay tuned for more updates.

Donkey Kong uses the barrel to clear a path. Be sure to stay on it and you can't lose a life.

Watch out for the Zingers. Time your jump wrong and you'll return to the start.

Have a Weekend in the coolest house in the world ou heard it right. You and six of your friends (two must be 18 years or over) could be spending 48 hours at the fizztastic 'Fanta' House between 18 - 20 July.

Each person will also be given £20 spending money, so you won't have to save up to enjoy your stay.

A few guidelines to bear in mind. If you're under 18, you'll need signed permission from a parent or quardian to enter and if you win, you and your friends, if under 18, will require consent to go. Biggest adventure yet

Game Info

By: Nintendo Type: 3D Adventure Release: October 2000 ith its release getting closer each day, news on Zelda Majora's Mask is starting to come in.

The brand new adventure, starring the young Link, is set in a parallel world similar to Hyrule. It's based on Link's against-the-clock battle to stop the moon from crashing down.

Link changes character along the way using fantastic masks that give him some amazing new abilities. The masks can also help him solve puzzles, offering tons of new and exciting Zelda moments.

Check out the awesome Deku Scrub Mask. When he puts it on, Link is able to hide amongst flowers and plants, before leaping into the air to attack his enemies. There are loads of groovy new tunes to learn, so you'd best be getting your musical skills up to scratch. Start practising!

All the right moves

Link just wouldn't be Link without brilliant moves and, to help him on his new adventure, the little fella's got some ace new skills to add to his already impressive collection.

The coolest has to be his hang gliding flower move and, being smaller than in his previous outing, he can now jump over the water's surface. Add to this a new long jump and you're looking at a real smooth mover.

Lusing special flowers, Link can glide into areas that were previously unreachable.

A He can walk on water! With a hop, skip and a jump, Link can cross rivers and lakes, but only up to five steps.

▲ That familiar sword slash is back and, with bigger and badder enemies, you're bound to need it!

Feel the pressure

One of the biggest differences between the first and second Zelda adventure is the real time aspect of the game.

Lil'Link has only three days to save Hyrule and, unlike the first edition, time doesn't stand still when he enters a town.

You'll find that the pressure's always on to save the day. Let's take a look at how the game looks, depending on the time of day...

It's 1am on the first day, so there are 60 hours of gaming to go.

The gauge at the bottom of the screen shows that Link is now half way through the second day.

A day runs from 6am to 6pm, with different enemies appearing depending on the time on the clock. It's less spooky in the day!

We think

The more we hear, the more excited we feel. There's a real buzz about this game, and we can't wait to get our mitts on it. The clock's ticking...

Pokémon Trading Card Game

● Grab every card ● Battle top collectors

Game Info

By: Nintendo Type: Trading game Release: December

veryone's collecting 'em, and now the excellent Pokémon Trading Card Game is coming to your Game Boy Color.

The latest Pokémon title is based on the mega popular card series where you collect cards and battle against other collectors. You control a young boy searching for card glory.

You must challenge all the best collectors and win medals from the Gym Leaders.

Can you be the Poké Trading Card champ?

You're not alone! Dr Mason is there to help you out along the way as you collect the legendary cards.

A You're up for a fight against the top collectors.

The gang's all here with every card in the real game and all your favourites.

Leveryone's a collector and they're all up for a battle. You must be good to win.

The master collectors won't even look at you until you've beaten their followers.

With eight different medals to get, you'll be playing for hours.

■ The Challenge Cup is there for the taking, but you've got a long way to go before you're good enough to battle the best collectors.

We think...

Battling the best collectors is tough, but great fun. With so much to do and loads of cards to collect, you won't wanna stop until you've got 'em all.

2049 NEW FOR

Game Info

By: Midway Type: 3D Racer Release: September

NINTENDO 64

Damn! You crashed and burned right before the next checkpoint. Oh well, better luck next time.

ast, futuristic fun is on its way. Better buckle up, boy racers! San Francisco Rush is launching us to the year 2049.

This time around, the road circuits have been replaced with hi tech city courses, packed with all the usual tyre screeching bends, death defying jumps and time saving shortcuts.

The game consists of five incredibly tough tracks and successful drivers will be able to gain access to a mirror option and even a couple of new courses.

At present, it's still unclear which multiplayer modes will be available, but we wouldn't be surprised if the game only kept the two player races. Whatever happens, Rush 2049 is shaping up to be something pretty damn special.

▲ Check out the map. You've found a shortcut. Now floor it and you'll be able to make up some time on your rivals.

It can be a long, lonely drive when you find yourself in last place. Put your foot down, you moron!

circuit. Hopefully there'll be a hidden path to spice it up.

◀ There are still some traditional Rush course settings. Get ready, you're about to fly over the car in front.

▲ This doesn't look like your usual civic centre. We're looking forward to the year 2049 if it's anything like this.

futuristic night races are ace. Just take a look at the cool lighting background.

■ The

Go for gold

Winning the races is only part of the challenge in Rush 2049. Find some of the more obscure shortcuts and they could contain one of several gold coins.

Collect enough treasure and you'll be able to unlock some of the secrets. These range from new, souped up motors to paint jobs for your current machine.

Gold coins are dotted throughout the hidden routes. Hey, there's one up ahead. Better grab it to get the most out of the game.

The gold coins have many uses. Use your new found booty to unlock secrets or give your car a fabulous paint job. Yes, red's a cool colour.

We think...

Previous Rush games have been adequate, but not spectacular. This is looking to change the trend. We're already in a rush to play this improved version.

Saffire FPS

● Strategy shooter ● Amazing graphics ● Explosive action

uns at the ready and brains on stand by for a new first person stealth shooter coming to the eagerly awaited Dolphin.

Much like Rainbow Six, you take on the challenge to save hostages and defeat baddies using a crack team of SAS style troops. You'll have a bucket load of gadgets and guns to choose from as you battle through offices, city streets and trains.

But the game won't just be about guns and ammo. There are plenty of mind bending traps and puzzles to solve which all need some serious thought if you're to remain in the game.

▲ Picking off baddies at night is easy thanks to the Night Vision Goggles, just one of many gadgets you get to use. ▼ Hey, watch it! The graphics in Saffire FPS are amazingly realistic. Check out this scary looking commando.

We think...

This looks the best Dolphin game so far, with incredible visuals and brilliant gameplay. Expect to see more on this spy shooter in the very near future.

Rayman

bi Soft has revealed that a brand new Rayman game will be coming to Dolphin as a follow up to the brilliant N64 adventure.

The title's still in the planning stages, but it's hoped that it will be ready in time for launch.

Also on the way is Evil Twins Cyprien's Chronicles, an adventure about an orphan who enters a world of nightmares.

▲ The brill N64 Rayman adventure won our Awesome award.

What we know

Perfect Dark 2 for Dolphin.

Okay, so we're still waiting for the awe'some N64 adventure, but rumours on the 'Net suggest that Joanna Dark will be back – on Dolphin.

Rare hasn't confirmed or denied the stories, so the fact that it hasn't been completely dismissed is encouraging. Stay tuned for updates...

More Dolphin titles from Ubi Soft.

Not an issue goes by without another announcement from Ubi Soft. This month is no exception!

Having already released the news about Dinosaur, the cool coders have now revealed that Dreamwork's forthcoming animated film, The Road to El Dorado, will be coming to Dolphin.

The movie has already come out in America, and it's due to reach our shores in the summer. We can't wait!

• First ever Dolphin demo.

The biggest rumour of the month suggests that a demo running off actual hardware took place at the Game Developers Conference.

Although it only showed an American footballer throwing a ball, it at least shows that things are moving in the right direction.

Unfortunately Retro Studios, the company responsible, refused to comment, but this story does appear to hold water.

Pokémon for Dolphin launch.

In a recent interview, Nintendo President Hiroshi Yamauchi revealed a few snippets about Dolphin and Pokémon. It would seem that Nintendo is currently developing a brand new 3D Pokémon adventure for its next gen machine.

Okay, so no surprises there, but it looks increasingly likely that the title will be out in time for launch. And if Mario also makes an early appearance, it could be the biggest selling console of all time.

Bolphin announcement expected soon, fingers crossed.

Although we're still not expecting an official Dolphin announcement until August, there is the possibility that there'll be some firm details revealed in May.

A Japanese N64 magazine received this news from Nintendo's head of PR, so it could turn out to be true. We'll keep our fingers crossed, so watch this space...
